

Virginia Institute on Cooperative Education

March 29 - 31, 2019

Graves Mountain Lodge - Syria, Virginia

What is it?

- Three-day youth leadership conference.
- Interactive, educational, and entertaining conference
- Students enhance their business, teamwork, and leadership skills.
- Hands-on with “the cooperative way of doing business.”
- Features “Who’s Minding the Store”, a computerized, interactive, business-simulation game involving making business decisions for a fictional farm-supply store.
- Chance to win a scholarship. $2,000, $1,500 and $1,000 college scholarships awarded to the three top performers at the VICE conference

Qualifications

Students are selected on the basis of merit from all applications received. Selected students:

- Must be age 16 – 19 (as of July of year attending).
- May attend conference only once.
- Must be willing to attend the entire weekend (Friday, 10:30 a.m. – Sunday, 2:30 p.m.).
- Will need to be excused from school Friday, March 29th, for this educational program.

Agenda

Day One

- Arrival and registration
- Incredible lunch
- Team building and icebreakers
- Introduction to co-ops
- Evening banquet with speakers
- Education session
- Fun and games
- Ice cream social

Day Two

- Delicious country breakfast
- Co-op case studies
- Computer simulation game
- Country lunch at the Lodge
- Hayride and hike
- Evening banquet
- Games, music and dancing

Day Three

- Another great breakfast
- Devotional service
- Computer simulation game
- Awards luncheon at the Lodge
- Winners announced
- Say goodbye to new friends

How Can I Attend?

Contact the Virginia Cooperative Council:

Allen Melton

Executive Secretary

(804) 281-1211

allen.melton@sscoop.com

or visit the Council's website at www.virginia.coop

The Virginia Cooperative Council is a not-for-profit organization headquartered in Richmond, VA, dedicated to furthering and educating the public on the cooperative form of business.

All instructors and adult leaders are professionals from either co-op businesses in Virginia, state educational institutions, or are involved with 4-H or FFA activities.